OFFICERS

JERRY REINSDORF
Chairman

Jerry Reinsdorf begins his 21st season as chairman of the Chicago White Sox, the second-longest ownership tenure in franchise history behind Charles Comiskey (1901-31) and the fifth-longest among current Major League Baseball owners. During Reinsdorf's 20 seasons as chairman of the White Sox, the club has captured American League division championships three times, including an AL Central title in 2000. The Sox also won division titles in 1983 and 1993 and were in first place in 1994 at the conclusion of the strike-shortened season.

Since heading the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox in January 1981, Reinsdorf has remained active in the affairs of baseball. He currently is serving a fourth four-year term on Major League Baseball's prestigious Executive Council. Reinsdorf also served a four-year term as chairman of baseball's Ownership Committee and was a member of the board of directors of the Player Relations Committee, Inc. for seven years. He is co-chairman of the Equal Opportunity Committee and remains a member of the Legislative, Labor Policy and Realignment committees. He was a member of the American League Presidential Search Committee, which named Gene Budig in June 1994, the Expansion Committee, which designated the last two expansion teams, and the Strategic Planning Committee. Reinsdorf is a member of the board of MLB Advanced Media, L.P., the interactive media company of Major League Baseball, responsible for creating and maintaining the Web sites of each of the 30 clubs and MLB.com.

During his career in professional sports, Reinsdorf, who also is chairman of the Chicago Bulls, has been responsible for the construction of two new sports facilities in Chicago, Comiskey Park (1991) and the United Center (1994).

Reinsdorf expanded his involvement in professional sports in February 1985 by purchasing controlling interest in the Chicago Bulls. During his tenure as chairman of the Bulls, the team has captured six World Championships for Chicago (1991-93, '96-98). In addition to initiating the building of new Comiskey Park, Reinsdorf spearheaded construction of two major facilities for the Bulls. The United Center, home for the Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks, opened for the 1994-95 season, and the Bulls began using the Sheri L. Berto Center, their state-of-the-art training facility, in 1992.

Both of Reinsdorf's sports franchises are active contributors to the Chicago community through a variety of efforts, including Chicago White Sox Charities and CharitaBulls. He has played a critical role in the development of the west side area surrounding the United Center and is responsible for introducing an innovative reading program to the Chicago Public Schools system. This program, supported by Chicago White Sox Charities, has improved reading levels for many inner city school children by as many as two grades. Through Chicago White Sox Training Centers and Chicago Bulls Basketball Schools, Reinsdorf's franchises promote sports with youth while instilling a love of the game in future fans.

Reinsdorf was the 1997 recipient of the Order of Lincoln Award, and his many contributions to the community have been recognized by such organizations as the Interfaith Organizing Project, the American Academy of Achievement, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the Trial Lawyers Club of Chicago, the Chicago Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame, the National Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame and the Chicago Sports Hall of Fame. In addition, he is the recipient of the Chicago Park District's 1990 Chicagoan of the Year Award, the 1992 PUSH Bridgebuilder Award, the National Italian-American Friendship Award, Northwestern University's Award of Merit and the U.S. Air Force American Spirit Award. Reinsdorf was awarded the Ellis Island Medal of Honor in 1993 and the 1997 Mayor's Medal of Honor.

In 1998, he was honored with the Guardian of Children Award from the Jewish Council for Youth Services. As chairman of the Chicago White Sox, he was instrumental in initiating Chicago White Sox Charities, the arm of the baseball organization that raises funds for cancer research, children's and senior programs. Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities has twice conferred its Hallmark Award to Reinsdorf in recognition of his efforts.

In addition to his sports interests, Reinsdorf is an attorney, a certified public accountant, a specialist in real estate securities, a registered mortgage underwriter and a certified review appraiser. In December 1987, Reinsdorf completed employment as chairman of the board of a real estate investment firm he co-founded in the early 1970s and sold to American Express. Currently, he is a partner in Bojer Financial, Ltd., a land investment company. He is a former member of the board of directors of Shearson Lehman Brothers, Inc. and the Northwestern University Law School Alumni Association and is presently a trustee of Northwestern University. He is a director of LaSalle National Bank, is on the board of Equity Office Properties and has served on the boards of numerous other corporations and charities.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y. on February 25, 1936, Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington D.C. and earned a law degree from Northwestern University. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have four children and seven grandchildren.

EDDIE EINHORN
Vice Chairman

Eddie Einhorn begins his 11th year as vice chairman of the White Sox, continuing his involvement with chairman Jerry Reinsdorf while also devoting time to his sports and television interests. Prior to becoming vice chairman, Einhorn was the club's president and chief operating officer for 10 years.

Einhorn has been a member of Major League Baseball's Schedule Format Committee, the Professional Baseball Association Committee, Player Development Committee and was a member of the Television Committee from 1992-95. He was one of the key architects of The Baseball Network, Major League Baseball's joint broadcasting venture. Einhorn's Cooperstown Baseball World, a sports camp complex for kids in Oneonta, N.Y., begins its second summer in 2001.

Recognized as the architect of baseball's first billion dollar-plus television contract, Einhorn was instrumental in negotiating Major League Baseball's 1990 deal with CBS-TV and ESPN.

In 1989, Einhorn was appointed television consultant to the United States Olympic Committee and was responsible for a 200-hour Olympic television package that debuted in 1990. He is currently television consultant for the United States Figure Skating Association and the International Skating Union, the governing bodies for figure skating throughout the world. In that capacity, he helped engineer the first amateur/professional sanctioned skating competitions. Einhorn also serves on the board of directors of the Chicago Bulls.

Prior to joining law school classmate Jerry Reinsdorf in 1981 to head the limited partnership that purchased the White Sox, Einhorn was the executive producer of the "CBS Sports Spectacular." At CBS, he was responsible for over 200 hours of programming per year and won an Emmy Award for "The Gossamer Albatross, Flight of Imagination" in 1980. Einhorn was the founder and chairman of TVS Television Network, the leading syndicator of sports programming in the 1970s, which helped give rise to the popularity of college basketball on television.

Einhorn was born on January 3, 1936 in Paterson, N.J. and holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Einhorn and his wife, Ann, have two children: Jennifer, who is coordinator of sponsor services for Major League Baseball, and Jeffrey, who works on the television series JAG.

HOWARD PIZER
Executive Vice President

Howard Pizer has primary responsibility for White Sox business and administrative operations, as well as the club's legal matters. The longtime business associate of Jerry Reinsdorf joined the White Sox in 1981 to handle the club's transition from former owner Bill Veeck to the Reinsdorf-Einhorn group.

Prior to its opening on April 18, 1991, Pizer's primary focus was on the necessary steps to create the new Comiskey Park. He utilized this experience in connection with the development and operation of the United Center, the state-of-the-art facility which opened for the 1994-95 Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks seasons.

In addition to setting organization-wide administrative policies and procedures, Pizer established uniformity in corporate-wide computerization and was instrumental in initiating an employee relations program. He also is responsible for the overall relationship between Illinois Sportservice, the White Sox concessionaire, and Levy Restaurants in conjunction with the operation of The Stadium Club and Diamond Suites. Beginning in 1999, Pizer has spearheaded the club's ongoing efforts to maximize the ballpark experience for fans attending a White Sox game at Comiskey Park.

Pizer lends his organizational ability to the board of directors of Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities; Special Children's Charities, the fundraising arm of Chicago Special Olympics; and Near West Side Development Corp., which is working to spur affordable housing and economic development on Chicago's near west side. Pizer also serves as vice president and secretary for Chicago White Sox Charities.

Born on October 23, 1941, in Chicago, Ill., Pizer is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. He is also a magna cum laude graduate of the Northwestern University School of Law. Pizer and his wife, Sheila, have two children: Jacqueline and Rachel; and one grandchild: Maggie.

KEN WILLIAMS
Senior Vice President/General Manager

Ken Williams became the 11th general manager in Chicago White Sox history on October 24, 2000, replacing Ron Schueler, who had been the longest-tenured general manager in the American League. At age 36 (turns 37 on April 6), Williams is the second-youngest general manager in baseball behind 33-year-old Brian Cashman of the Yankees.

In his position, Williams will be responsible for all baseball operations decisions, including major-league and minor-league personnel and scouting. He is the first African-American general manager in Chicago sports history and the third in major-league history, following Bill Lucas (Atlanta, 1979) and Bob Watson (Houston, 1994-95/Yankees, 1996-97). Williams and Jerry Manuel form the first African-American general manager/manager tandem in major-league history.

Among his key offseason moves, Williams re-signed infielder Jose Valentin to a three-year deal on November 22 and right-handed pitcher Cal Eldred to a one-year deal on December 7. He also acquired shortstop Royce Clayton from Texas on December 14, signed free-agent catcher Sandy Alomar, Jr. to a two-year contract on December 18 and acquired veteran left-hander David Wells from Toronto in a six-player deal on January 14.

Williams served as the club's vice president of player development for four seasons from 1997-2000. Under his direction, the White Sox were named 2000 Organization of the Year by Baseball America, USA Today and Howe SportsData. Seven products of the Sox farm system, including six pitchers, made their major-league debuts in 2000 as the White Sox posted the best record in the American League at 95-67.

Despite losing several players to the parent club during the season, Chicago's top two affiliates, Class AAA Charlotte and Class AA Birmingham, combined to go 155-128 for a .548 winning percentage. Right-hander Jon Rauch, at 6-11 the tallest player in professional baseball, was named Minor League Player of the Year by Baseball America, right-hander Jon Garland was named International League Player of the Year, third baseman Joe Crede was named to the Minor League All-Star Team and was tabbed the Southern League Most Valuable Player, and left-hander Mark Buehrle was named SL Pitcher of the Year.

The Play

White Sox General Manager Ken Williams was a freshman wide receiver at Stanford in 1982 (John Elway was the quarterback) when the Cardinal dropped a 25-20 decision to Cal. After Stanford had rallied to a take a 20-19 lead on a field goal with 0:04 remaining, Cal took the ensuing kickoff, and several laterals and one downed-band member later, scored the winning touchdown on what would become known as "The Play."

In 1999, the Sox farm system again contributed heavily to the major-league club as 13 Sox players made their debuts during the season (11 debuted in 1998). The Sox used 19 rookies during the season, ending the campaign with seven first-year players from the farm system (13 in 1998). Two White Sox affiliates reached postseason in 1999, with Class AAA Charlotte winning the International League title before losing in the Triple-A World Series in five games to Vancouver, and Class A Burlington captured the Midwest League crown. Advanced Rookie Bristol won the Appalachian League title in 1998.

Williams has spent 15 seasons with the White Sox in a variety of capacities, including player, scout and special assistant to the chairman. Williams served as the director of minor league operations/special assistant to the chairman from November 1995 until becoming vice president of player development in 1997. After his playing career ended, he joined the club in November 1992 as a scout, specializing in the inner cities and was named special assistant to White Sox chairman Jerry Reinsdorf in 1994. As special assistant to the chairman, Williams was involved in the overall operation of the entire White Sox organization. He also worked at SportsChannel in 1995 as a studio analyst on White Sox telecasts.

Williams is active in the organization's outreach programs within the community. He has played a crucial part in the White Sox introducing the Direct Instruction program to the Chicago Public Schools system and takes an active role in the club's community relations initiatives.

A former major-league outfielder with the White Sox (1986-88), Detroit (1989-90), Toronto (1990-91) and Montreal (1991), Williams appeared in 451 career games. His best season came as a rookie in 1987, when he hit .281 with 11 home runs and 50 RBI for the White Sox. Williams originally was selected by the Sox in the third round of the June 1982 free agent draft.

Born on April 6, 1964 in Berkeley, Calif., Williams attended Stanford University, where he played football. Williams and his wife, Jessica, have five children: Temeka, Dedrick, Ken Jr., Kyle and Tyler. The family resides in Plainfield, Ill.

ROB GALLAS
Senior Vice President, Marketing and Broadcasting

Rob Gallas begins his 12th season with the White Sox after joining the club in September 1989. Gallas and the Sox marketing department have consistently focused on promoting fan-oriented programs that create an enhanced baseball experience for Sox fans throughout the ballpark. In 2001, the club's integrated marketing focus continues to be on kids and families.

Gallas directed the club's marketing efforts as the Sox closed old Comiskey Park in 1990, opened new Comiskey Park in 1991 and enjoyed one of the best attendance decades in franchise history as the team drew nearly 20 million fans to Comiskey Park in the 1990s (19,777,566 for an average of 1,977,757 fans per season). Eight of the club's top 10 season attendance marks have come since 1990, including last year when the White Sox drew more than 1.9 million fans, the seventh-highest total in franchise history. The team's eight sellouts in 2000 were the most in club history.

Sox marketing efforts have introduced fan-focused and fun events like Kids Sundays, Family Mondays with half price admission, "Dog Day," "Elvis Night" and FUNdamentals, the in-park baseball skills area just for kids.

Gallas also is responsible for the club's relationship with its broadcast partners, WGN-TV, FOX Sports Net, WCIU-TV and ESPN Radio 1000. Gallas oversees the club's advertising campaigns which over the years have included celebrity spots, Bo Jackson's "Hip Season Ticket Plan," spoofs on names featuring the club's players, a summer action thriller movie trailer and the highly regarded "The Kids Can Play" campaigns.

The White Sox logo and uniforms, unveiled at the end of the 1990 season, have moved the Sox near the top of Major League Baseball in merchandise sales. At the same time, a strong effort is being made to help fans interact with the team's players through events like SoxFest, the weekend baseball celebration held at the end of January, Kids Sundays, with autograph sessions for kids, and White Sox Day at the annual Taste of Chicago.

As president of Chicago White Sox Charities, Gallas heads the club's efforts to "give back" to the Chicagoland community through Chicago White Sox Charities and Sox community relations efforts. He also is a board member for Chicago Youth Centers, Chicago Baseball Cancer Charities and the Chicago Museum of Broadcast Communications.

Gallas began his career as a news and sportswriter with newspapers in the Midwest, including a stint from 1976 to 1983 as the White Sox beat writer for the Chicago suburban Daily Herald newspaper chain. He received the Jacob Scher award for investigative reporting in 1975 and in 1980 captured UPI's Illinois Newspapers Best Sportswriting Award. Before joining the White Sox, he held the position of group manager of marketing communications and services for a division of Baxter Healthcare Corporation.

Gallas was born in Chicago, Ill. on January 4, 1951. A 1973 graduate of the University of Evansville (Indiana), Gallas and his wife, Sharon, have two children: Christopher and Jennifer. The Gallas family resides in Palatine, Ill.

A New Look For Whitesox.com

Whitesox.com presents a new look in 2001 after being re-launched in February by Major League Baseball's new media company, MLB Advanced Media. John Ralph, editor, and Patrick O'Connell, assistant editor, maintain the site, which offers many of the same features as in the past, including statistics, team history, individual player information and real-time updates. Whitesox.com now offers direct links to other club sites and more in-depth statistics, including situational splits and visual representations, than in the past. The site also features live game data-casting, video highlights, minor league summaries, MLB transactions as well as team and player history. Media can access the media-only portion of whitesox.com and access photo archives through an FTP site, by contacting the Public Relations Department for details.

JACK GOULD
Senior Vice President, Baseball

Jack Gould joined the White Sox as an investor in 1975 during Bill Veeck's second tenure with the club. He assumed his current role as senior vice president of baseball in 1981 with the Reinsdorf-Einhorn ownership group. Gould is one of three Veeck-era members of the Sox board of directors remaining on the board.

Under Gould's direction, the White Sox began computerizing the gathering of statistical data during the 1981 season, bringing the club into the forefront of the industry by making baseball decisions based on computer-generated data. He also has overseen the research involved in preparing for arbitration cases.

As a bomber pilot for the U.S. Army Air Force during World War II, Gould flew on 35 combat missions in Europe and received several decorations, including the distinguished Flying Cross. Lt. Col. and actor Jimmy Stewart was second in command of Gould's wing. After leaving the military, Gould ran his own mortgage banking firm for 25 years. He is an advocate of youth baseball and served in various administrative capacities for Colt League Baseball in the northern suburbs of Chicago, including coaching duties.

Gould was born in Chicago, Ill. and is a graduate of Chicago's Von Steuben High School and the University of Illinois, where he received a bachelor's degree in accounting. He and his wife, Nancy, have one child: Larry and one grandchild: Lucas.

RON SCHUELER
Senior Vice President/Special Consultant to the Chairman

After 10 seasons with the White Sox as senior vice president of major league operations, Ron Schueler announced his decision to step away from running the club's day-to-day operations on October 24, 2000 and began his new role as senior vice president/special consultant to chairman Jerry Reinsdorf. Schueler also advises general manager Ken Williams and evaluates amateur and professional talent as a scout for the club.

Schueler had been the longest-tenured general manager in the American League when he stepped down, leading the White Sox to an 817-734 (.527) mark during his 10 seasons, the fourth-best record in the major leagues over that span (behind only Atlanta, the New York Yankees and Cleveland). The Sox finished first or second in their division in eight of his 10 seasons, capturing division titles in 1993 and 2000. The 2000 White Sox went 95-67 to win the AL Central.

Schueler named Jerry Manuel the club's 36th manager on December 4, 1997. Manuel, who was named American League Manager of the Year in 2000, became the first African-American hired to lead a Chicago pro sports franchise (Larry Doby was an interim manager for the Sox in 1978).

The 52-year-old Schueler brings 21 years of off-the-field baseball experience and an additional 13 years of playing service to the White Sox. In the four years prior to joining the Sox, Schueler served as special assistant to Oakland's Sandy Alderson, where he was responsible for evaluating both professional and amateur baseball talent. With the White Sox, Schueler played two very different roles as general manager. In the early 1990s, his focus was on finding complementary players to sustain the team's success. Later in the decade, he helped develop an organization from the inside out with a deep pool of young talent. The White Sox were named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 2000 and featured the "Player of the Year" in pitcher Jon Rauch.

During his tenure, Schueler was responsible for acquiring veterans Jim Abbott (1995), Harold Baines (1996-97, '00), Albert Belle (1997), Ellis Burks (1993), Mike Devereaux (1995), Doug Drabek (1997), Cal Eldred (2000-01), Julio Franco (1994), Charlie Hough (1991-92), Bo Jackson (1991-93), Darrin Jackson (1994, 1999), Cal Eldred (2000), Darren Lewis (1996-97), Dave Martinez (1995-97), Kirk McCaskill (1992-96), Tony Phillips (1996-97), Tim Raines (1991-95), Kevin Tapani (1996) Danny Tartabull (1996) and Jose Valentin (2000-01).

As a pitcher, Schueler compiled a 40-48 record over eight major-league seasons with Atlanta (1972-73), Philadelphia (1974-76), Minnesota (1977) and the White Sox (1978-79). The 6-4 right-hander originally was selected by Atlanta in the third round (secondary phase) of the January 1967 free agent draft.

His playing career ended in June 1979 when he was hired by Sox manager Don Kessinger as the club's pitching coach. Schueler served in that capacity until 1981 before joining Oakland as pitching coach from 1982-84. He held the same duties for the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1986 before joining the A's front office, where he received a World Series ring with Oakland in 1989.

Schueler was born on April 18, 1948, in Hays, Kan. A graduate of Hays High School where he played baseball and basketball, he attended Fort Hays State College prior to being drafted. Schueler, who married Linda Schubert in April 2000, has two daughters, Kacey and Carey, and two step daughters, Jennifer and Christina.

TIM BUZARD
Vice President, Administration and Finance

As vice president of administration and finance for the White Sox, Tim Buzard is directly responsible for the club's accounting, ticket office, human resources, data processing and public relations departments. Buzard oversees Chicago White Sox Training Centers, the club's week-long baseball instruction camps for boys and girls. He also has spearheaded the planning and development of the first White Sox/Bulls Academy, located in Lisle, Ill., which celebrates its Grand Opening this spring.

Prior to his promotion to vice president of administration and finance, Buzard served as vice president of finance for 12 years and controller for five years. Upon his arrival in 1981, his top priority was developing a detailed budget and long-term accounting plan. He initiated the automation of the accounting department and assisted in an organization-wide computerization project. Buzard also has initiated new cash management and comprehensive risk management systems, which reduced risk exposures and costs for the franchise.

Buzard spent much of the 1993 season as a member of Major League Baseball's Chief Financial Officers' Committee studying revenue sharing and has played a major role in the implementation of baseball's new revenue-sharing agreement. Buzard has overseen a ticket office customer service campaign, the development of a human resources department with the White Sox and is responsible for the organization's integrated approach to communications. He currently is a member of the Major League Baseball non-uniformed Personnel Pension Plan Committee.

Buzard graduated in 1978 from the University of Illinois with a degree in accounting and became a certified public accountant in 1981. He served as a senior accountant for Ernst & Whinney for three years prior to joining the Sox.

Buzard was born on September 13, 1955 in Evanston, Ill. A 1978 graduate of the University of Illinois, Buzard and his wife, Sandra, have two children: Jacqueline and Kevin. The Buzard family resides in Highland Park, Ill.

LARRY MONROE
Vice President, Free Agent and Major League Scouting

Larry Monroe enters his seventh season as the club's vice president of free agent and major league scouting after serving as Sox vice president of scouting and minor league operations from 1990-94. Monroe was named to his present position on October 10, 1994.

A former right-handed pitcher for the Chicago White Sox, Monroe brings 26 years of experience in the White Sox organization as a player, scout, minor-league instructor and coach. He served as both a special assistant to the general manager and major-league scout before taking over vice president duties.

Monroe enhances the club's scouting efforts during the season and his experience allows him to assist general manager Ken Williams in evaluating potential player moves.

A graduate of Forest View High School in Arlington Heights, Ill., Monroe received all-conference baseball honors three times and all-area baseball honors twice. He was the White Sox No. 1 selection in the June 1974 free agent draft and made his major-league debut with the White Sox on August 23, 1976 in Detroit, where he pitched two scoreless, hitless innings.

Monroe was born on June 20, 1956 in Detroit, Mich. He is married to Jaine Kahan and has three children: Taylor, Allison and Grant, and two stepchildren, Rachel and Lexie.

TERRY SAVARISE
Vice President, Stadium Operations

As vice president of stadium operations, Terry Savarise is directly responsible for all aspects of the operation of the ballpark, including the over 2,000 employees who staff Comiskey Park on game days. He was responsible for the planning and construction of new Comiskey Park, which opened in 1991, and has overseen the offseason remodeling efforts, which will bring fans down the lines and in the outfield closer to the action in 2001. Savarise handled the layout and design of all aspects of the ballpark, including the state-of-the-art features in the Diamond Suites, The Stadium Club, press box and clubhouses.

Entering his 20th season with the Sox, Savarise also serves as senior vice president of operations for the United Center, home of the Chicago Bulls and Chicago Blackhawks. Savarise handled all design and construction aspects of the state-of-the-art multipurpose arena. He also coordinated the installation and operation of the 1996 Democratic National Convention at the United Center.

Savarise spearheaded the design and construction of Tucson Electric Park, the new White Sox spring training facility and stadium in Tucson, Ariz., which opened in the spring of 1998. He worked closely on the design and construction of Ed Smith Stadium and Sports Complex in Sarasota, Fla., which served as the club's spring training and minor-league headquarters from 1989-97. In addition, he assisted in the development of L.P. Frans Stadium, home of the White Sox former Class A affiliate in Hickory, North Carolina.

Prior to joining the Sox, Savarise served an internship with the Cleveland Cavaliers of the National Basketball Association in their All-Star Game season (1980-81). He is a member of the Arena Managers' Association and the International Association of Auditorium Managers and has served on the board of directors of the Stadium Managers' Association.

Savarise was born on November 20, 1959 and was raised in Ashtabula, Ohio. He is a 1981 graduate of Ohio University with bachelor's degrees in accounting and business law, followed by a master's degree in sports administration later that year. Savarise and his wife, Tara, have two children: Katie and Jonathan.

White Sox Head Groundskeeper Roger Bossard

The man responsible for building and maintaining Comiskey Park's highly regarded playing field is head groundskeeper Roger Bossard, now in his 35th season with the White Sox. Groundskeeping has been a Bossard family tradition, with six members possessing a combined 235 years of experience in the business. Roger's grandfather, Emil, served as head groundskeeper with the Cleveland Indians from 1932-68, while his father, Gene, was in charge with the White Sox from 1940-83. Roger joined the Sox in 1967 as an assistant to his father before taking over following Gene's retirement in 1983. In addition, his cousin Brian is the head groundskeeper with the San Diego Padres, and two of his uncles also are in the business. A rundown of Bossard's resume:

■ Is a consultant for 10 Major League Baseball teams and four National Football League teams.

■ Designed and built major-league fields in St. Louis, Seattle, Milwaukee, Detroit and Arizona as well as new Comiskey Park.

■ Designed and built major-league spring training complexes for Cincinnati, Montreal, the Yankees, St Louis, Arizona and the White Sox.

■ Designed and built in 1984-85 the first natural turf soccer fields in Saudi Arabia for the Royal Family.

■ Fourteen of 30 major-league teams use a patented drainage system that he developed specifically for the opening of new Comiskey Park in 1991.

■ As part of Comiskey Park's offseason renovation, he built new bullpens and also re-configured the outfield grass, irrigation and drainage systems.

Shattering Success

Under the direction of hitting coach Von Joshua, the White Sox established club single-season records in eight major offensive categories in 2000, breaking the previous standards for at-bats, runs scored, hits, total bases, doubles, home runs, RBI and slugging percentage. In addition, the Sox featured a club-record five players who scored 100-plus runs, with another five recording at least 20 home runs and 90 RBI. Frank Thomas (143 RBI) and Magglio Ordonez (126) combined to drive in 269 runs, breaking the club record for duos of 266 set by Zeke Bonura (138) and Luke Appling (128) in 1936. A look at the Sox record-breaking offense in 2000:

White Sox Restructure Baseball Department

Roland Hemond, a three-time winner of Major League Baseball's Executive of the Year award, has rejoined the Chicago White Sox as executive advisor to general manager Ken Williams. Hemond's hiring was part of a restructuring of the baseball department implemented when Ron Schueler stepped down after 10 seasons as general manager on October 24, 2000, and Williams, 36, was named his successor.

Hemond, 71, brings 50 years of professional baseball experience to the job, including 24 seasons as a general manager with the White Sox (1970-85) and Baltimore Orioles (1988-95) and the last five as a senior executive vice president with the Arizona Diamondbacks. Hemond was named Executive of the Year with the White Sox in 1972 and 1983 and again with Baltimore in 1989.

As part of the restructuring, Williams named Dan Fabian director of baseball operations systems, Rick Hahn director of major league administration and Andrew Pinter assistant director of baseball operations systems. In addition, Dennis Gilbert was named a special assistant to chairman Jerry Reinsdorf, while Schueler remains with the club as senior vice president/special consultant to the chairman.

The "White Flag" Trade Revisited

On July 31, 1997, the White Sox traded pitchers Wilson Alvarez, Danny Darwin and Roberto Hernandez to San Francisco in exchange for pitchers Lorenzo Barcelo, Keith Foulke, Bob Howry and Ken Vining, shortstop Mike Caruso and outfielder Brian Manning. Barcelo, Foulke and Howry, all right-handed relievers, have combined to go 23-18 with a 3.17 ERA (183 ER/519.1 IP), 91 saves and 509 strikeouts with the Sox. The trio has averaged 8.8 strikeouts and 2.8 walks (163 BB) per 9.0 IP, while compiling a 3.1:1 strikeout-to-walk ratio. Caruso started at shortstop for the Sox from 1998-99, batting .278 (292-1,052) in 269 games while finishing third in the American League Rookie of the Year voting in 1998. Caruso and Manning are no longer with the organization, but Vining was placed on the 40-man roster for the first time following the 2000 season. A look at the combined White Sox numbers of Barcelo, Foulke and Howry entering 2001:

Roberto Clemente Award

Royce Clayton (Texas) and Ray Durham (White Sox) were their respective clubs 2000 nominees for the Roberto Clemente Award, presented annually since 1970 by Major League Baseball to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team. The winner of the award receives a $25,000 donation from John Hancock Financial Services for the local charity of his choice at an on-field ceremony during the World Series. John Hancock will also make a cash contribution to the Roberto Clemente Foundation and to each nominee's local charity. The award was named after Clemente, a 12-time All-Star who was killed in a plane crash on New Year's Eve 1972 while delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims in Nicaragua.

Durham Nears Elite Level

With 77 career home runs and 176 stolen bases, Ray Durham is in position to become the first second baseman in White Sox history to reach 100 in each of those categories. Over the last five seasons, Durham has averaged 14 home runs and 32 stolen bases. He is the only player in franchise history to record 30 steals and 100 runs scored in three consecutive seasons (1997-99) and is one of two second basemen to score 100 runs in four straight seasons (1997-2000). Nellie Fox accomplished the feat from 1954-57. In addition, Durham is just the second Sox second baseman to be selected to the All-Star Team multiple times (1998, 2000, joining Fox, who was a 12-time All-Star in 1951-61, '63).

Eldred's Top Seasons

Cal Eldred, who was named The Sporting News Rookie Pitcher of the Year in 1992 after going 11-2 with a 1.79 ERA, set Milwaukee single-season records that season in ERA and winning percentage (.846). He was recalled from Class AAA Denver on July 15, 1992 with the Brewers at 45-41, 7.5 games behind Toronto in the American League East Divsion. With Eldred in the rotation, Milwaukee won 47 of their final 78 games to finish 92-70, 4.0 games behind the eventual World Champion Blue Jays. Eldred's 36 starts and 180 strikeouts in 1993 rank second and fourth, respectively, in club history.

Frank Thomas From 1991-98

Frank Thomas is the only player in major-league history to bat .300 or better with at least 20 home runs, 100 RBI, 100 walks and 100 runs scored in seven consecutive seasons, a string that ended in 1998. In 1995, Thomas became the first player in history to accomplish that feat over five straight years, and in 1994 he joined Lou Gehrig (1929-32, 34-37) and Ted Williams (1946-49) as the only players to reach those totals four consecutive seasons (Note: Williams accomplished the feat from 1941-42 and 1946-49, missing 1943-45 due to World War II). Thomas has averaged .319 with 33 home runs, 112 RBI, 103 runs scored and 115 walks over his nine full seasons in the major leagues.

Frank Thomas Facts

2000 Highlights

- Finished second behind Oakland's Jason Giambi in the American League Most Valuable Player voting (317-285) ... was attempting to become the ninth player in major-league history to win three MVP Awards, joining Yogi Berra (1951, 54-55), Barry Bonds (1990, 92-93), Roy Campanella (1951, 53, 55), Joe DiMaggio (1939, 41, 47), Jimmie Foxx (1943, 46, 48), Mickey Mantle (1956-57, 62), Stan Musial (1943, 46, 48) and Mike Schmidt (1980-81, 86) ... no player has ever won the award four times.
- Was named AL Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News and won his fourth career Silver Slugger Award (also 1991, '93-94) ... also was selected to Baseball America's Major League All-Star Team and named in a survey by the same publication as the Second Best Power Hitter in baseball behind Carlos Delgado.
- Established career highs in hits (191), runs scored (115), home runs (43), RBI (143), total bases (364) and extra-base hits (87) and was two doubles (44) shy of his career bests ... fell nine RBI short of Albert Belle's club record 152 RBI set in 1998.
- Ranked among the AL leaders in extra-base hits (2nd), RBI (3rd), total bases (3rd), slugging percentage (4th, .625), on-base percentage (4th, .436), walks (T4th, 112), doubles (T5th), runs scored (T7th), average (9th, .328) and hits (9th).
- Also ranked among the batting average leaders vs. left-handers (1st, .407), with runners in scoring position (3rd, .377), at night (6th, .344) and at home (7th, .347).
- Batted .407 (37-91) with 10 home runs and 32 RBI vs. left-handers ... entered the season with a lifetime .346 (415-1,119) mark vs. southpaws but combined to hit just .226 (50-212) in 1998-99.
- His 30 home runs at Comiskey Park broke Albert Belle's club record of 29 set in 1998.
- Hit at least .300 each month of the season ... his 12 home runs in June matched his career best (also 5/94) and tied for third-best in franchise history ... batted .340 (33-97) with seven home runs and 24 RBI in July ... led the AL with nine home runs and ranked third with 30 RBI in August ... his 30 RBI also set a club record for August.
- Scored his 1,000th career run on 6/7 at Cincinnati to join Harold Baines, Barry Bonds, Fred McGriff, Mark McGwire and Cal Ripken as active players with 300 home runs, 1,000 runs scored, 1,000 RBI and 1,000 walks.
- Broke Luke Appling's 50-year-old RBI record of 1,116 on 7/14 at St. Louis ... became the fifth active player to lead a franchise in both home runs and RBI, joining Jeff Bagwell (Houston), Ken Griffey, Jr. (Seattle), Fred McGriff (Tampa Bay) and Cal Ripken (Baltimore).
- Was named AL Player of the Week for 4/3-9 and again for 7/13-15, his 11th and 12th career weekly honors.
- Matched career high with six RBI on 7/15 vs. St. Louis ... also had four games with five RBI and four with four.
- Had four multihomer games (19 career) ... hit 11 first-inning home runs, increasing his career total to 79 ... hit grand slams on 4/26 vs. Baltimore and 9/11 vs. Detroit, upping his career total to seven ... homered in three straight games on three occasions (11 career) ... hit first career pinch-hit home run on 6/7 at Cincinnati.
- Hit .323 (138-427) with 34 doubles, 36 home runs and 111 RBI after changing his batting stance on 5/24 vs. New York ... collected 33 home runs and 104 RBI after 6/1.

Career Highlights

- Five-time All-Star leads all active players with a .440 career on-base percentage, ranks sixth with a .579 slugging percentage and seventh with a .321 average.
- Has recorded 100 runs scored, 100 RBI and 100 walks in the same season nine times in his career, third most in history behind Babe Ruth (12) and Lou Gehrig (11).
- Has hit 40 home runs four times in his career, driven in 100 runs nine times, scored 100 runs nine times and drawn 100 walks nine times.
- Has batted .337 (1,132-3,357) while playing first base and .294 (619-2,103) as the designated hitter.
- Is the White Sox all-time leader in home runs (344) and RBI (1,183).

MAJOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

■ Career: Needs 94 games played for 1,000, 15 runs scored for 500, 65 RBI for 500 and three stolen bases for 100 ... has reached double-digit home runs in each of the last seven seasons (averaging 16) ... has seven career multihomer games (last 9/30/00 vs. Kansas City) ... has homered from both sides of the plate on 9/30/00 vs. Kansas City and 7/1/99 at the Cubs as a member of the Brewers ... 109 of his 115 career home runs have come left-handed ... hit three home runs on 4/3/98 at Florida, becoming just the seventh major-league shortstop in the 20th century and first Brewers player (fourth overall) since Dale Sveum on 7/17/87 to accomplish that feat.

■ 1999: Missed more than two months of the season after tearing the ulnar collateral ligament in his left thumb on 4/10 at Houston ... was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/13 and underwent surgery to repair injury on 4/15 ... returned to lineup on 6/16 and hit safely in 14 of his first 17 games (.377, 23-61) ... hit his fourth career grand slam on 8/25 vs. Los Angeles (off Kevin Brown) ... homered from both sides of the plate on 7/1 at Wrigley Field for his fourth career multihomer game ... second home run was just his fifth career from the right side of the plate ... set a Brewers National League record and equaled a franchise mark with two triples on 9/29-1 vs. Pittsburgh ... posted a .937 fielding percentage (22 E/349 TC) ... homered in three straight games from 6/19-21 ... twice drove in four runs ... played for Puerto Rico in the Caribbean World Series, hitting a game-winning home run in the 11th inning of the series-clinching victory over the Dominican Republic ... also played for Mayaguez in the Puerto Rican Winter League.

■ 1998: Hit three home runs on 4/3 at Florida, becoming just the seventh major-league shortstop in the 20th century and first Brewers player (fourth overall) since Dale Sveum on 7/17/87 to accomplish that feat ... went 3-3 with three home runs, three runs scored and a career-high five RBI in the game ... recorded his third career multihomer game on 6/12 at Pittsburgh ... matched his career-high with four hits on 6/8 vs. Kansas City ... hit .387 (12-31) during a nine-game hitting streak from 6/27-7/9 ... notched his 500th career hit on 8/27 at Arizona (Andy Benes) ... had one hit from 7/29-8/21 ... made 110 starts at shortstop, committing 21 errors ... played for Mayaguez in the Puerto Rico Winter League.

■ 1997: Stole a career-high 19 bases (matched in 2000) ... batted .293 (48-231) on the road compared to an AL-worst .208 (48-231) at home ... 15 of his 17 homers came against right-handers ... grounded into double plays just 5.1 percent of the time, ninth-best in the American League ... compiled a 10-game hitting streak (.371, 13-35) from 5/23-6/1 ... also hit in nine straight games from 7/2-14 ... started the season in a 2-20 (.100) slump before fracturing the middle finger on his right hand while attempting to bunt on 4/13 vs. Toronto ... was on the disabled list from 4/14-5/5.

■ 1996: Set career highs in virtually every offensive category, including home runs (24) and RBI (95) ... grounded into four double plays in 135 situations (3.0 percent), the best ratio in the AL ... drove in four runs three times ... hit third career grand slam on 7/18 vs. Kansas City ... batted .248 against left-handers, up from .133 in 1995 ... hit his first two career homers against lefties ... after committing 15 errors in 1995, led all major-league shortstops with 37 ... hit .277 with 12 home runs, 57 RBI and 50 runs scored in the first half ... compiled a then career-high, 12-game hitting streak from 6/17-30 (.426, 20-47) ... went 4-6 with a home run and career-high four runs scored on 4/2 at Anaheim ... twice collected four hits.

Hitting For The Cycle

Jose Valentin became the fifth player in White Sox history to hit for the cycle when he accomplished the feat on April 27, 2000 vs. Baltimore. Valentin singled in the first inning, doubled in the second, tripled in the third and homered in the eighth to become the second Sox player in two years to hit for the cycle. Ray Schalk (June 22, 1922 at Detroit) was the first Sox player to accomplish the feat, followed by Jack Brohamer on September 24, 1977 at Seattle, Carlton Fisk on May 16, 1984 vs. Kansas City and Chris Singleton on July 6, 1999 vs. Kansas City. One month later, on May 27 vs. Cleveland, Valentin fell a single short of becoming the second player in major-league history (Brooklyn's Babe Herman in 1931) to hit for two cycles in one season.

■ 1995: His ratio of grounding into double plays was the best in the AL ... was limited to pinch-running duty in September after breaking a finger on his throwing hand while diving into a base on 8/21 at Kansas City ... hit game-winning grand slam in the ninth on 6/21 at Toronto ... recorded first career multihomer game on 6/10 vs. Cleveland off Orel Hershiser ... collected four hits on 5/20 at Texas.

■ 1994: Named Brewers Rookie of the Year ... his 11 home runs were the most by a Brewers middle infielder since Dale Sveum hit 25 in 1987 ... all 11 homers were hit left-handed ... hit first career grand slam on 7/20 vs. Kansas City (Tom Gordon) ... twice drove in four runs ... led AL shortstops with 20 errors.

Sox Switch-Hitting Home Runs

Jose Valentin became just the fourth player in White Sox history to homer from both sides of the plate in one game when he connected twice on September 30, 2000 vs. Kansas City. Valentin homered in the third inning off right-handed starter Blake Stein and in the eighth off lefty Scott Mullen. Outfielder Ken Henderson was the first player in Sox history to homer from both sides of the plate on August 29, 1975 at Baltimore (off LHP Ross Grimsley and RHP Wayne Garland). Tim Raines repeated the trick on August 31, 1993 at New York (off LHP Sterling Hitchcock and RHP Rich Monteleone). Brian Simmons preceeded Valentin on September 26, 1998 at Kansas City (off RHP Brian Barber and LHP Allen McDill).

■ 1989: His .309 combined average with the White Sox and Texas ranked eighth in the AL and was second among left-handers behind Wade Boggs (.330) ... was seventh in on-base percentage (.395) and 10th in slugging (.465) ... was traded to Texas on 7/29 ... was named to The Sporting News All-Star and Silver Slugger teams as the designated hitter ... started the All-Star Game ... his RBI single off Rick Sutcliffe was the first hit by a designated hitter in an All-Star Game.

■ 1988: Led all designated hitters with 160 hits and 76 RBI and was named the league's top designated hitter for the second successive season ... tied for sixth in the AL in doubles (39) and led the team in games (158), hits (166), total bases (246) and RBI (81).

■ 1987: Posted career highs of 10 home runs and 36 RBI in June ... was named to the AL All-Star Team for the third consecutive season despite missing 23 games early due to a knee injury ... was selected as the league's top designated hitter ... hit safely in 18 straight games from 7/3-7/24.

■ 1986: Became the first Sox player to reach 20 home runs in five consecutive seasons ... hit six ninth-inning homers, tying for the lead in the majors ... led the Sox in hits (169), runs (72), homers (21) and RBI (88) ... ranked fourth in the AL with 15 assists in his last full season in the outfield.

■ 1985: Led the AL with a .335 road batting mark ... his 158 starts led all league right fielders ... batted over .300 with 20 or more home runs for the second straight season ... was named to The Sporting News and UPI All-Star teams ... missed 200 hits when he went 0-13 in the final series against Seattle ... hit 13 of his 22 home runs after 8/22 ... posted a .994 fielding percentage, third-best in the AL ... had a pinch-hit single off Nolan Ryan in first All-Star Game appearance.

■ 1984: Led the AL in slugging percentage (.541) ... in 70 games from the end of May through mid-August, batted .379 with 19 home runs, 59 RBI and a .783 slugging percentage ... home run on 5/9 off Milwaukee's Chuck Porter in the 25th inning ended the longest game in major league history (8:06) ... hit the 753rd pitch of the game ... bat used to hit the home run is in the Baseball Hall of Fame ... tied three major league records as a result of the game: most plate appearances (12); longest errorless game by an outfielder (25 innings); and most innings by an outfielder (25) ... homered three times on 9/17 at Minnesota.

■ 1983: Set a then major-league record for most game-winning RBI (22) ... his sacrifice fly on 9/17 at Comiskey Park drove home Julio Cruz to beat Seattle and give the Sox the AL West Division title, the franchise's first since 1959 ... posted a career high 19-game hitting streak from 9/3-9/23.

■ 1982: At age 23, became the youngest player in Sox history to reach 100 RBI ... his 105 RBI were the most by a Sox player since Dick Allen in 1972 (113) ... hit three homers for the first time on 7/7 at Detroit.

■ 1981: Improved batting average by 31 points from 1980 ... tied for second in the AL with seven triples ... hit .354 in August.

■ 1980: Appeared in 141 games as a rookie ... first career homer came on 4/19 off Baltimore's Jim Palmer at Memorial Stadium to give Sox pitcher and current broadcaster Ed Farmer the victory ... first career hit came off New York's Jim Kaat on 4/17.

MINOR LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

■ 1979: Posted a .528 slugging percentage at AAA Iowa, batting .298 (139-466) with 22 home runs and 87 RBI ... hit two home runs in the same inning on 8/4 at Oklahoma City.

■ 1978: Appeared in 137 games at AA Knoxville ... played 10 games at first base, the only time in his career he has appeared anywhere other than the outfield or designated hitter.

■ 1977: Played in 69 games at Class A Appleton in his first professional season ... was the No 1 selection in the June draft and was signed by White Sox owner Bill Veeck.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

■ The Harold Baines Scholarship Fund provides college tuition for deserving students in the Baltimore area ... conducts the Harold Baines Charity Golf Outing each October to benefit the Bay 100 Youth Task Force that provides scholarships to Eastern Shore students ... was a Cystic Fibrosis "65 Roses" chairman.

MISCELLANEOUS/PERSONAL

■ Married to Marla Henry ... has four children: Antoinette, Britni, Harold Jr., and Courtney ... was born, raised and still resides in St. Michael's (Md.) where as a Little Leaguer he attracted the attention of former White Sox owner Bill Veeck ... six years later (1977), the White Sox selected Baines with the first pick in the country ... Veeck and then general manager Roland Hemond traveled to Baines' home the night before the draft and signed him to a contract ... three days later Baines worked out with the Sox when they traveled to Baltimore's Memorial Stadium ... was a high school All-American ... played for coach Denver Leach ... every January 9th is "Harold Baines Day" in St. Michael's.

Windy City Classic

For the second straight season, the White Sox and Cubs play a pair of three-game series in 2001, on June 8-10 at Comiskey Park and July 12-14 at Wrigley Field. Since interleague play began in 1997, the Cubs and White Sox have split 18 games, with the Cubs outscoring the Sox by a 98-83 margin. The South Siders are 5-4 at Comiskey Park and 4-5 at Wrigley Field. The Sox took two of three games at home on June 9-11, 2000, including a 14-inning victory in the opener, but the Cubs won two of three at Wrigley Field on July 7-9 to knot the series at nine games apiece. The 1999 series on the south side drew 131,276 fans, the largest turnout for a three-game set in new Comiskey Park history. In addition, the crosstown series has drawn the top six regular-season crowds in new Comiskey Park history, including a record 44,249 on 6/17/97. Including postseason, exhibition, spring training and regular-season games, the Sox own a 130-88-6 edge.

It's Miller Time

For the second time in four seasons, the Chicago White Sox will play the first-ever game at an opponent's new ballpark. After concluding Cactus League Play on March 29, the White Sox travel to Milwaukee on March 30 for a 7:05 p.m. CST game against the Brewers at Miller Park. WCIU-TV will carry the game live. The White Sox finished with an 86-88 record against the Brewers at County Stadium, including a 1-2 mark in 1999. The Sox also played the inaugural game at Arizona's BankOne Ballpark on March 29, 1998, posting a 3-0 victory before a capacity crowd of 48,198.

White Sox-Tigers Brawl

The White Sox-Tigers game on April 22, 2000 at Comiskey Park included two bench-clearing brawls. Seven Sox players were suspended by Major League Baseball and three fined as a result of the on-field altercations. Manager Jerry Manuel was suspended eight games, while Magglio Ordonez (five games), Keith Foulke, Bob Howry, Carlos Lee, Jim Parque and Tanyon Sturtze (three each) also were suspended. Acting manager Joe Nossek guided the Sox to a 3-5 record during Manuel's absence.

Pack Your Bags

The White Sox 10-game, three-time zone trip from April 3-13, 2000 was the longest season-opening trip in franchise history. The Sox went 6-4 on the trip, splitting four games at Texas on April 3-6 before taking two of three at Oakland (April 7-9) and Tampa Bay (April 11-13). After beginning 0-2, allowing 10 or more runs in both losses, the Sox were tied with Texas, 7-7, on April 5 when Chris Singleton led off the ninth inning by homering off Jeff Zimmerman on the first pitch. Chicago added four more runs in the inning and went on to win, 12-8.

Run-Scoring Machine

The White Sox led the major leagues and set a franchise record with 978 runs scored in 2000, an average of 6.04 per game. A franchise-record five players scored 100 or more runs: Ray Durham (121), Frank Thomas (115), Carlos Lee (107), Jose Valentin (107) and Magglio Ordonez (102). The Sox scored in double figures 28 times in 162 games (17.3 percent), including 19 on August 9 vs. Seattle and 18 on 4/18 vs. Seattle. In addition, they scored eight or more runs in an inning on five occasions: 11 in the fourth inning on April 18 vs. Seattle; nine in the first inning on June 18 at New York; eight in the fifth on July 3 at Kansas City; nine in the fifth on July 15 vs. St. Louis; and nine in the first on September 3 vs. Anaheim. The 11-run outburst vs. Seattle was the Sox biggest inning since October 3, 1987 vs. Oakland, while the nine-run first at New York was their biggest opening frame since 1962.

White Sox Season Highlights

The White Sox captured their first American League Central division title in 2000, advancing to the postseason for the seventh time in franchise history ... following is a chronological rundown of some of the key moments in the Sox championship season:

April 3-13 Season-Opening Trip

■ The White Sox 10-game, three-time zone trip from 4/3-13 was the longest season-opening trip in franchise history ... the Sox went 6-4 on that trip, splitting four games at Texas on 4/3-6 before taking two of three at Oakland (4/7-9) and Tampa Bay (4/11-13) ... after beginning 0-2, allowing 10 or more runs in both losses, the Sox were tied with Texas, 7-7, when Chris Singleton led off the ninth inning by homering off Jeff Zimmerman on the first pitch ... Chicago added four more runs in the inning and went on to win, 12-8.

April 19 Move Into First

■ The Sox moved into first place on 4/19 with a 5-2 victory vs. Seattle ... they remained in first place for the final 166 days of the season, the longest first-place run in club history.

April 21 Perry Added

■ Third baseman Herbert Perry was claimed off waivers from Tampa Bay on 4/21 and went on to bat .308 in 109 games.

April 22 Brawl Aftermath

■ The White Sox-Tigers game on 4/22 at Comiskey Park included two bench-clearing brawls ... as a result of the altercations, seven Sox were suspended by Major League Baseball and three fined as a result of an on-field brawl vs. Detroit on 4/22 ... manager Jerry Manuel was suspended eight games ... Magglio Ordonez (five), Keith Foulke, Bob Howry, Carlos Lee, Jim Parque and Tanyon Sturtze (three each) also were suspended ... acting manager Joe Nossek guided the Sox to a 3-6 record during the suspensions.

Record-Setting April April Power

■ With a 17-8 record in April, the White Sox were off to their best start since 1973 when they began 18-7 ... the Sox scored 181 runs in the month (7.2 per game), breaking the major-league record of 180 set by Texas in 1998, and also established franchise marks with 17 wins and 35 home runs.

May 13 Abbott's Blast

■ Pinch-hitter Jeff Abbott hit a two-out home run off Bob Wells on 5/13 at Comiskey Park to give the White Sox a 4-3 victory over Minnesota ... the Sox were in danger of losing for the seventh time in eight games when Abbott delivered his heroics ... instead, they went on to win 26 of their next 34 games.

June 12-18 Perfect Trip

■ The White Sox went 7-0 on a trip to Cleveland (3-0) and New York (4-0), the fourth undefeated trip in franchise history (minimum six games) ... the Sox posted a 17-4 win in the finale at New York to complete their four-game sweep at Yankee Stadium since 1992 ... their nine-run first inning in that game was their biggest since 1962 ... Chicago eventually extended its road winning streak to 12 games, including 10 straight against teams with a .500 or better record at the time of the game ... according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the Sox were the only team since 1900 to accomplish that feat.

May 16-June 25 38-Game Test

■ The White Sox went 27-11 during a 38-game stretch from 5/16-6/25 in which they played New York (8-4), Cleveland (7-3), Toronto (3-1), Seattle (2-1), Houston (2-1), Cincinnati (3-0) and the Cubs (2-1).

July 14 Eldred's Elbow

■ Cal Eldred left his start on 7/14 vs. St. Louis after 4.1 IP with ulnar neuritis in his right elbow ... Eldred, who was 10-2 at the time of the injury, did not return to the rotation until 9/27 ... he underwent surgery on 9/7 to have a five-inch screw surgically inserted into the elbow to stabilize stress fractures.

July 29 Baltimore Deal

■ The White Sox acquired designated hitter Harold Baines and catcher Charles Johnson from Baltimore in return for catcher Brook Fordyce and three minor-league pitchers ... Baines returned for his third stint with the Sox, while Johnson, a four-time Gold Glove Award winner, finished with 30 home runs.

August 14 Closed Doors

■ Following an 8-2 loss at Baltimore on 8/14, manager Jerry Manuel held a closed-door meeting ... the Sox responded by winning 15 of their next 23 games.

August 25-30 West Coast Challenge

■ Chicago entered a key six-game west coast trip to Seattle and Oakland with a 7.0-game lead over Cleveland, their smallest since 6/21 ... the Sox responded by taking two of three games against the Mariners and two of three against the A's to maintain their lead.

September 1 Rally Hats

■ The White Sox rallied from a six-run deficit, matching their largest comeback of the season, to defeat Anaheim, 9-8, on 9/1 at home ... the Sox trailed, 8-2, at one point but used a six-run eighth inning to complete the comeback.

September 8 Tribe Showdown

■ In the opener of a crucial three-game series at Jacobs Field, the White Sox held off Cleveland for a 5-4 win ... trailing, 5-4, the Indians loaded the bases with one out in the seventh inning but Paul Konerko made a diving catch of a Jim Thome line drive to protect the lead.

September 24 Central Clincher

■ Despite an extra-inning, 6-5 loss at Minnesota, the White Sox clinched the American League Central title when Cleveland's loss at Kansas City guaranteed the Sox their first playoff berth since 1993.

Take A Shower

Eight White Sox pitchers recorded their first major-league victories in 2000, receiving the traditional postgame beer shower in the process. Matt Ginter, making his major-league debut on September 1 vs. Anaheim after his contract was purchased prior to the game, was the last of the eight to accomplish the feat. He joined Kelly Wunsch (May 13 vs. Minnesota), Jesus Pena (June 9 vs. the Cubs), Kevin Beirne (June 14 at Cleveland), Jon Garland (July 17 vs. Milwaukee), Mark Buehrle (July 19 at Minnesota), Rocky Biddle (August 15 at Baltimore) and Lorenzo Barcelo (August 23 vs. Baltimore).

Road Warriors

With a 49-32 record, the White Sox were the best road team in baseball in 2000. The 49 wins tied the 1993 and 1954 Sox for the most in franchise history, while the .605 winning percentage tied the 1993 Sox for fifth in club history. The White Sox combined to go 17-7 at New York (5-1) and Cleveland, Oakland and Seattle (4-2 each) and went 7-0 on a trip to Cleveland (3-0) and New York (4-0) from June 12-18, the fourth undefeated trip in franchise history (minimum six games). Chicago's 12-game road winning streak from June 4-July 3 was the longest in baseball since Detroit tied a major-league record by winning 17 straight to open the 1984 season. Included in the Sox streak were 10 straight road wins against teams who were .500 or better at the time of the game, making the Sox the only team since 1900 to accomplish that feat (source: Elias Sports Bureau).

Rally Caps

The 2000 White Sox were known for late-inning heroics and overcoming large deficits. Some highlights:

Date	Opp	Score	Highlights
4/7	at Oak.	7-6	Durham 3-run HR w/two out in eighth helps Sox overcome 6-2 deficit.
6/23	vs. N.Y.	4-3	Two-run rally in ninth off Rivera; Lee leadoff HR and Valentin two-out RBI single.
7/3	at K.C.	14-10	Down 9-3, Sox score eight in fifth and three in sixth.
7/30	at Ana.	11-7	Down 6-2, Sox score two in eighth, three in ninth and four in 10th.
9/1	vs. Ana.	9-8	Down 8-3, Sox score six in eighth, highlighted by Valentin's two-run PH single.

One-Two Punch

Ray Durham and Jose Valentin led off the game on July 4, 2000 at Kansas City with back-to-back home runs off right-hander Chad Durbin. It marked the first time the Sox have accomplished that feat since September 2, 1937 (game one) vs. Boston when Boze Berger and Mike Kreevich went deep off Johnny Marcum.

White Sox 2000 Attendance Notes

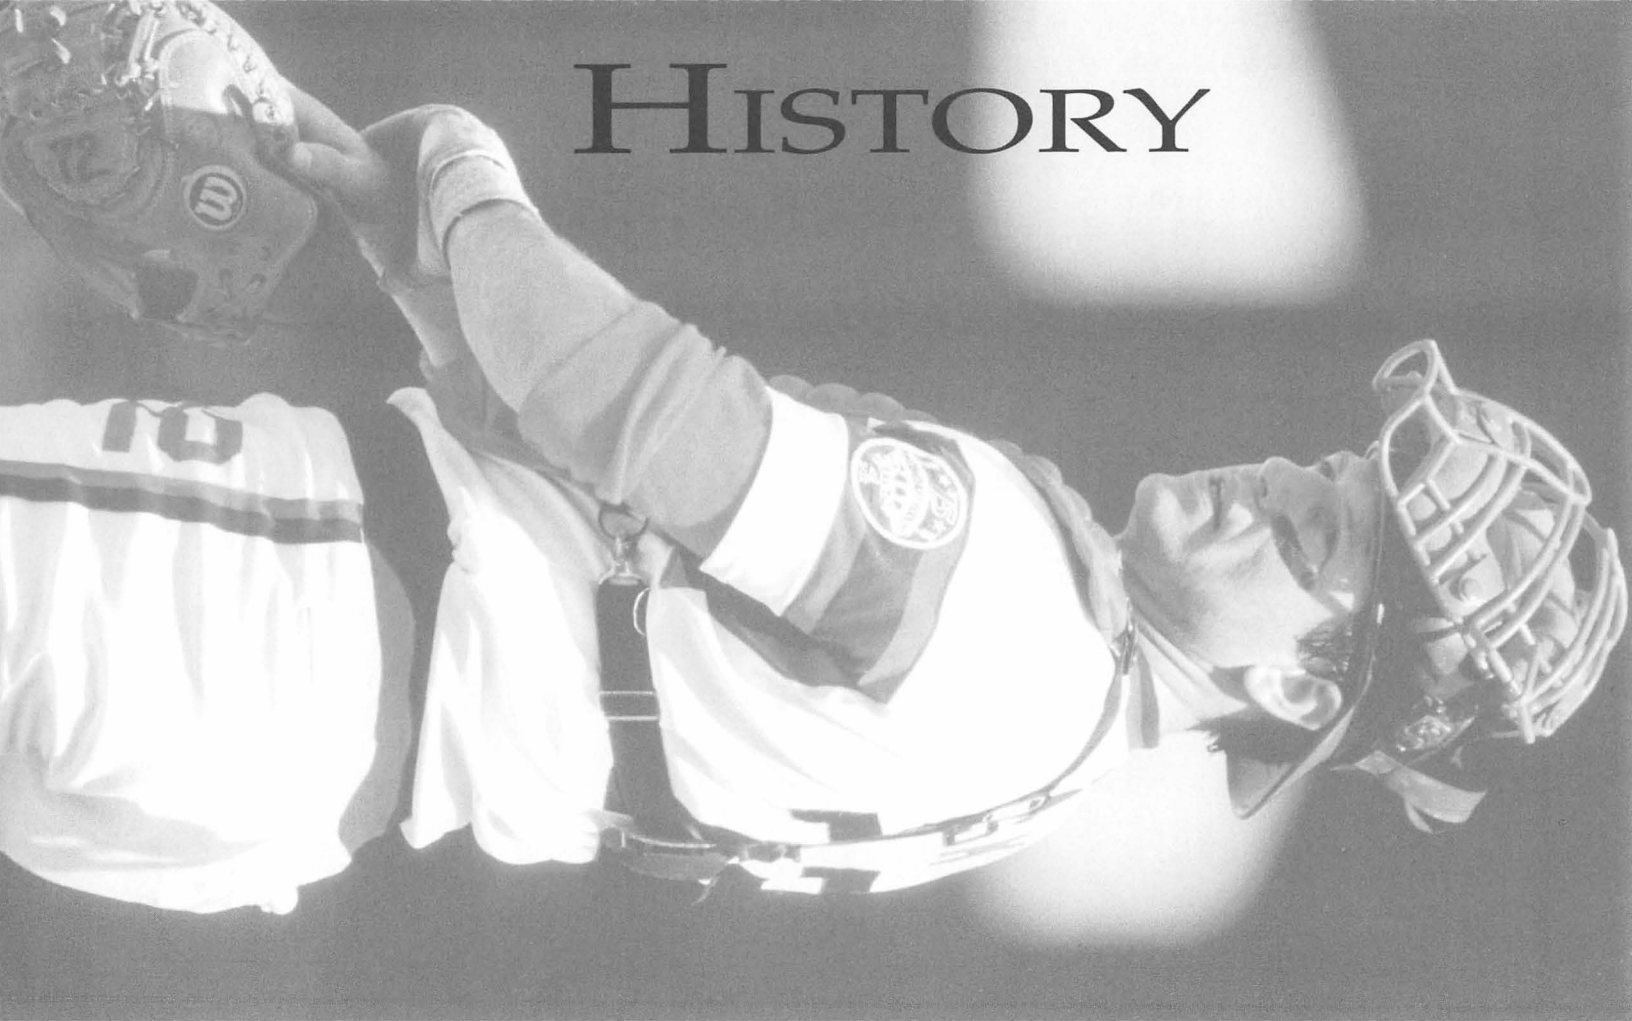
■ The White Sox drew 1,947,799 fans to Comiskey Park in 2000 (24,347 per game), the seventh-best total in franchise history and best since 1993 (2,581,091).

■ Chicago's eight sellouts at home were the most ever at new Comiskey Park and one more than its combined total of seven from 1995-99 ... the home opener was sold out for the first time since 1994, as a crowd of 38,912 witnessed their 9-4 victory vs. Anaheim on 4/13 ... the series vs. the Cubs on 6/9-11 drew 131,104 fans, the second-largest turnout for a three-game set in new Comiskey Park history.

■ The White Sox averaged 24,347 fans per game, up from 17,616 last season ... the 45.5 percent increase was the second-biggest in baseball behind San Francisco, which spent the season in brand new Pac Bell Park.

■ The top three crowds in new Comiskey Park history came during the 1993 ALCS vs. Toronto ... a record crowd of 46,246 turned out for Game 1 on 10/5/93, followed by 46,101 for Game 2 on 10/6/93 and 45,527 for Game 6 on 10/12/93 ... the 2000 ALDS vs. Seattle drew the fourth- and fifth-largest crowds, with 45,383 turning out for Game 2 and 45,290 for Game 1.

History



White Sox Timeline

Nov. 20, 1893 ..... At a meeting held in the Grand Hotel Indianapolis, the Western League is formally organized. Charles Comiskey nominates Ban Johnson for president of the league. The Sioux City franchise is awarded to a local businessman named H. H. Drale. A year later Comiskey's contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs expires. At the behest of Ban Johnson, Charles Comiskey purchases the Sioux City team and moves it to St. Paul.

Oct. 11, 1899 ..... The American League is christened in Chicago, amid rumors that the St. Paul club will transfer to the south side.

March 21, 1900 ..... An agreement is signed which lands the St. Paul Saints in Chicago.

April 2, 1900 ..... Playing as the Chicago team for the first time, the White Stockings defeat the University of Illinois, 10-9, in Champaign. Roy Patterson is the victor.

The Cubs win the opener, 8-3, but the Sox rebound to win the final two games, 5-3 and 3-0. The series attracts the top two regular-season crowds in new Comiskey Park history, with 44,249 attending the game on 6/17 and 44,204 turning out for the series finale on 6/18. The Sox opened interleague play on 6/13 at Cincinnati's Cinergy Field with a 2-0 victory as Ray Durham leads off the game with a home run.

August 3, 1997 ..... Nellie Fox is inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N.Y. Fox, who played with the Sox from 1950-63, batted .288 with 35 home runs and 790 RBI over his 19-year career. He is further honored when the White Sox hold "Nellie Fox Day" at Comiskey Park on 8/16.

Sept. 14, 1997 ..... Carlton Fisk's uniform No. 72 is retired in a ceremony prior to the White Sox game vs. Cleveland. Fisk, who played with Chicago from 1981-93, becomes the eighth Sox player to have his number retired, joining Nellie Fox (No. 2), Harold Baines (3), Luke Appling (4), Minnie Minoso (9), Luis Aparicio (11), Ted Lyons (16) and Billy Pierce (19).

Sept. 28, 1997 ..... Frank Thomas finishes with a .347 average to become the second player (third time) in club history to capture the American League batting title. Thomas wins by .017 over Seattle's Edgar Martinez as he joins Luke Appling (1936 and 1944) as the only Sox players to win the crown.

Dec. 4, 1997 ..... Jerry Manuel is named the club's 36th manager. Manuel becomes the second minority manager in Sox history (Larry Doby served as interim manager for 87 games in 1978) and the first African-American hired as manager or head coach in Chicago sports history.

July 31, 1998 ..... Albert Belle establishes a major-league record by hitting his 16th home run in July, breaking the previous mark of 15 shared by Joe DiMaggio (1937), Hank Greenberg (1938), Joe Adcock (1956) and Juan Gonzalez (1996).

Sept. 1, 1998 ..... Albert Belle hits his 42nd home run and records his 337th total base at Baltimore to set franchise single-season records in both categories. Belle eclipses the existing home run mark held by Frank Thomas (1993) and total bases mark held by Joe Jackson (1920).

Sept. 26, 1998 ..... The White Sox hit their 196th home run to break the franchise record of 195 set by the 1996 club. Brian Simmons homers from both sides of the plate to become the third player in franchise history to accomplish that feat.

Comiskey Park Renovation

Chicago's Comiskey Park will sport a new look in 2001. The Illinois Sports Facilities Authority (ISFA), owners of the 10-year-old ballpark, approved certain capital modifications to Comiskey Park during a board meeting on August 25, 2000.

The enhancements, recommended by the White Sox, were completed at no cost to taxpayers and will directly impact fans by creating additional seating closer to the playing field and by changing the dimensions of the outfield fence.

The modifications include:

- Adding multiple rows of seats along the foul lines (beyond each dugout) in front of the existing seating.
- Relocating the bullpens to allow fans to see pitchers warming up. The White Sox bullpen will be placed beyond and along the fence at the left-field foul pole. The visiting bullpen will be placed beyond and along the fence to the left of The Bullpen Sports Bar.
- Filling in the areas of the former bullpens with seating.
- Making the outside portion of The Bullpen Sports Bar into a two-tiered terrace seating area.
- Extending the outfield seating area down to the fence in many areas.

As a result of the renovations, the dimensions of the ballpark's outfield fence have changed from its former symmetrical design. The new dimensions are 330 feet down the left-field line, 377 to left center, 400 to center field, 372 to right center and 335 down the right field line. Comiskey Park formerly measured 347-375-400-375-347. The ballpark's capacity is not expected to change dramatically since seats removed from the upper deck will be used in the newly created seating areas.

The renovation also increased the White Sox office space, re-located parking for the television production trucks and improved a new parking lot (Lot L) along 39th street. The cost of the renovation projects, estimated to be $8 million, will be recouped by additional rental payments by the White Sox over the next seven seasons. In addition, ISFA will not be required to make a $1 million maintenance payment due in November 2000.

Construction began at the conclusion of the 2000 season.

Third Time's A Charm

Harold Baines is one of five players to appear with the White Sox on three different occasions. Baines, a No. 1 draft selection of the White Sox in 1977, has played with the Sox from 1980-89, 1996-97 and again in 2000. Players with three separate stints with the Sox:

Player	Pos.	Years w/Sox
Harold Baines	OF/DH	1980-89, '96-97, 2000
Lena Blackburne	INF	1910-12, '14-15, '27-29
Dave Philley	OF	1941, '46-51, '56-57
Rich Hinton	LHP	1971, '75, '78-79
Minnie Minoso	OF/INF/DH	1951-57, '60-61, '64, '76, '80

Chicago Connection

153 players have appeared for both the White Sox and Cubs. Only Johnny Evers managed both the Sox (1924) and Cubs (1913, '21). Frank Chance, who managed the Cubs from 1905-12, died in 1924 before managing a regular-season game for the Sox.

Hall Of Famer Nellie Fox

In 1958, Nellie Fox struck out just 11 times in 623 at-bats (one every 56.6 at-bats), the best single-season strikeout ratio in club history. Fox holds the major-league record for most seasons leading the league in fewest strikeouts (11, 1952-62). Fox, who in 1959 became the first Sox player to win the American League Most Valuable Player Award, also holds the club mark for most consecutive games played (798). He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1997.

Team Of The Century

Two-time MVP Frank Thomas led all voting as the White Sox announced the franchise's 27-player "Team of the Century" on September 30, 2000, commemorating 100 years of White Sox baseball. Thomas received 10,822 votes and was followed by Joe Jackson (9,293), Luke Appling (9,234), Carlton Fisk (8,866) and Nellie Fox (8,727). More than 200,000 votes were cast on 18,500 in-stadium and online ballots during the month-long voting.

Ten of the 27 players are Hall of Famers, including the recently inducted Fisk, and six played during the Go-Go Sox era of the 1950s. Thomas and Harold Baines are the only Team of the Century members still active with the Sox.

Minnie Minoso

Orestes "Minnie" Minoso played 12 seasons with the White Sox covering five separate stints and four decades, batting .298 (1,963-6,579) with 186 home runs and 1,023 RBI from 1951-57, '60-61, '64, '76 and '80. Minoso became the first African-American player in franchise history when he made his major-league debut on May 1, 1951 vs. the Yankees, homering off Vic Raschi in his first at-bat. A six-time All-Star with the Sox, he ranks among the career franchise leaders in virtually every offensive category. Minoso's uniform No. 9 was retired by the Sox in 1983, and he still works with the club as a community relations representative.

April Showers

The Sox scored 181 runs in April 2000 (7.2 per game), breaking the major-league record of 180 set by Texas in 1998, and also established franchise marks with 17 wins and 35 home runs. With a 17-8 record in April 2000, the White Sox got off to their best start since 1973 when they began 18-7. The 17-8 mark was their best since the 1973 club began 18-7. Chicago's 18-run outburst on 4/18 vs. Seattle was its biggest since a 19-11 win vs. Minnesota on 8/4/92, and an 11-run fourth was its biggest since 10/3/87 vs. Oakland.

White Sox Turnaround

The White Sox 1990 record of 94-68 (after finishing 69-92 in 1989) was the largest one-year turnabout in club history, eclipsing the 1970-71 revival when the Sox improved from 56-106 to 79-83.

Four Home Runs In One Inning

The White Sox tied a club record (second time) with four home runs in one inning on May 3, 2000 vs. Toronto. Mark Johnson hit a two-run shot, and Jose Valentin, Frank Thomas and Paul Konerko later added back-to-back-to-back home runs in the sixth inning. Frank Thomas, Harold Baines, Robin Ventura and Chad Kreuter were the first to accomplish the feat when they each homered in the eighth inning of a 12-1 victory vs. Milwaukee on May 26, 1996.

Triple Plays

The last triple play turned by the White Sox came on June 6, 1996 at Boston's Fenway Park. With Joe Magrane pitching, Mo Vaughn and Jose Canseco both walked. Tim Naehring grounded to White Sox third baseman Robin Ventura, who stepped on third base to force out Vaughn. Ventura threw to second base where Ray Durham forced out Canseco, and Durham's relay throw to first baseman Frank Thomas beat Naehring.

White Sox Named 2000 Organization Of The Year

The Chicago White Sox were honored by Baseball America, USA Today, and Howe SportsData as the 2000 Organization of the Year.

RHP Jon Rauch, at 6-11 the tallest player in baseball, was tabbed Minor League Player of the Year by Baseball America and The Sporting News after going 16-4 with a 2.66 ERA (49 ER/166.0 IP) and 187 strikeouts between Class A Winston-Salem and Class AA Birmingham.

RHP Jon Garland was named International League Pitcher of the Year at Class AAA Charlotte after going 9-2 with a 2.26 ERA, while 3B Joe Crede (.306, 21, 94) and LHP Mark Buehrle (8-4, 2.28) were named the Southern League's Most Valuable Player and Pitcher of the Year, respectively. In addition, George Bradley was named Scout of the Year.

The Sox 2000 draft was regarded as one of the top three in baseall and included first-round pick Joe Borchard, an outfielder from Stanford who also played quarterback on the football team. The 6-5, 220-pound Borchard, a switch-hitter, was rated by Baseball America as the Second-Best Ahtlete, Power Hitter and Defensive Player in the draft. Second-round SS Tim Hummel of Old Dominion was cited by Baseball America as the Third-Best Pure Hitter in college.

The farm system also has been stocked through shrewd trades, beginning with a nine-player deal with San Francisco on July 31, 1997 that brought three members of the Sox 2000 pitching staff — Keith Foulke, Bob Howry and Lorenzo Barcelo. Garland was acquired from the Chicago Cubs near the trade deadline in 1998.

White Sox Dominican Academy

The Chicago White Sox Dominican Academy is located in Moca, Dominican Republic in the Cibao region near Santiago. Since the academy opened in December 1998, the White Sox have signed 35 players from the Dominican. Denny Gonzalez, a former major-league infielder with the Pittsburgh Pirates, scouts and runs the academy. Gonzalez is assisted by 20 full-time staff members who handle the accounting, groundskeeping, cooking, equipment as well as general upkeep of the complex. In addition to running camps throughout the year, the White Sox field a team in the Dominican Summer League.

White Sox Produce Top Three Draft

For the second straight year, the Chicago White Sox produced one of the Top Three drafts according to Baseball America. The Sox selected three of the top 43 players and four of the Top 100 as ranked by the same publication. Unlike the 1999 draft when they used 14 of their first 15 picks on pitchers, the White Sox took 13 position players with their first 17 selections in 2000.

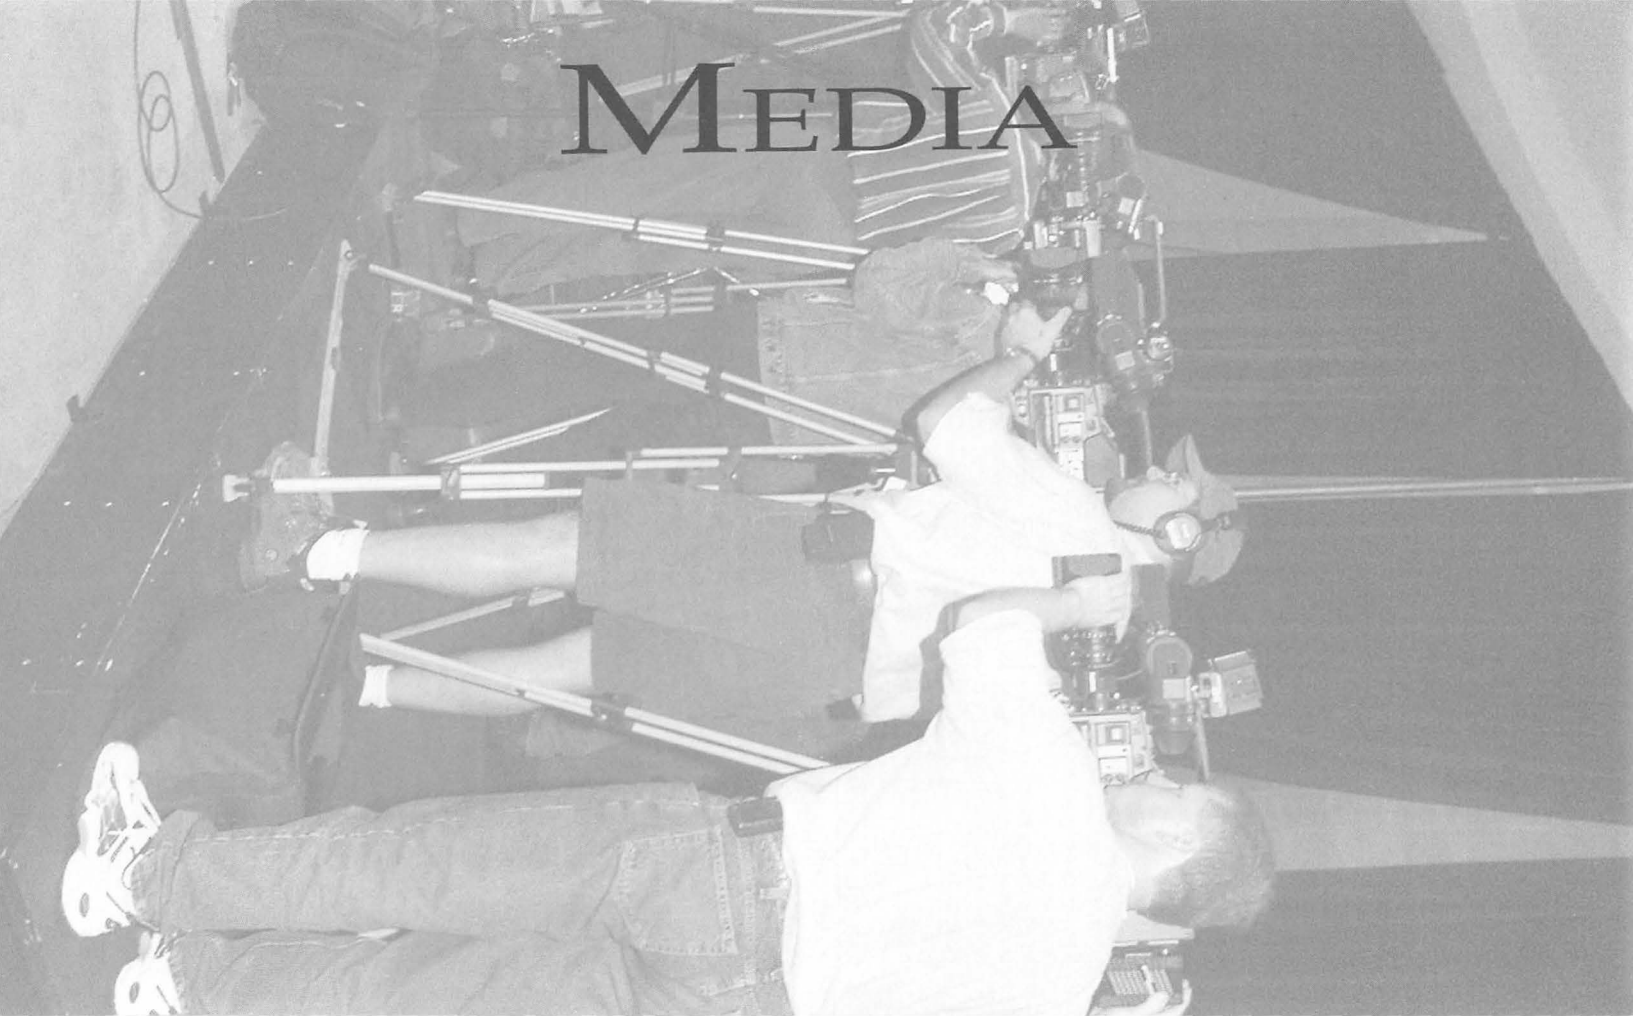
Media



Broadcasting

Broadcasts

The Ken "Hawk" Harrelson and Darrin Jackson tandem begins its second season in 2001, televising 152 regular-season White Sox games on FOX Sports Net (99 games), WGN-TV (29 contests) and WCIU-TV (another 24 games, all produced by WGN). In addition to local television coverage, six White Sox games will be shown as part of the FOX National Saturday "Game of the Week" and one will be televised by ESPN

Flagship radio station ESPN Radio 1000, featuring John Rooney on play-by-play and Ed Farmer as color commentator, will broadcast all 162 White Sox games for the sixth consecutive season in 2001. All Sox home games also will be broadcast in spanish on WLXX radio (1200 AM) under an agreement with Hispanic Sports Marketing.

FOX Sports Net (FSN) will televise Opening Day, Monday, April 2, in Cleveland at 12:05 p.m. (CT) and the Comiskey Park home opener on Friday, April 6 vs. Detroit at 3:05 p.m. FSN also will carry the game on April 24 vs. Oakland at 7:05 p.m., which marks the 100th anniversary of the first "official" American League game in history (April 24, 1901, White Sox 8, Cleveland 2). WGN-TV's first White Sox telecast is scheduled for Saturday, April 7 vs. Detroit (1:05 p.m.).

Eight of the 99 Sox games televised by FSN will be carried on FOX Sports Net Plus (except in the Chicago ADI where the games will appear on CLTV) due to conflicts with telecasts by the Chicago Bulls, Chicago Blackhawks or Chicago Cubs. The eight games are: April 25 vs. Oakland, May 2 at Anaheim, May 9 vs. Anaheim, May 16 at Seattle, May 30 vs. Toronto, June 13 vs. Cincinnati, August 1 vs. Kansas City and August 15 vs. Texas.

WCIU-TV will televise its first White Sox contest on Monday, April 9 vs. Cleveland (7:05 p.m.). WCIU-TV also will carry the third game between the Sox and Reds on June 14 (6:05 p.m.) and two of the four-game series at Cleveland from July 23-26 (both 6:05 p.m. CDT).

The first game of the crosstown series against the Chicago Cubs at Comiskey Park on June 8-10 will be televised by FSN (7:05 p.m.). FOX will air the middle game as part of its Saturday national schedule (12:05 p.m.), and WGN-TV will carry the series finale on Sunday (1:05 p.m.).

In addition to the Sox/Cubs game on June 9, the White Sox also will appear on FOX's National Saturday telecast on June 16 at St. Louis, June 23 at Baltimore, July 14 at the Cubs, July 21 vs. Boston and August 18 vs. Oakland. ESPN will televise the White Sox game at Detroit on Sunday, May 27 at 7:05 p.m. CDT.

There will be no over-the-air or cable television broadcast for the September 15 game at Minnesota.

Jerry Manuel, the 2000 American League Manager of the Year, signed a contract extension through 2004 on February 18, 2001.

Media Services

Admission: Enter Comiskey Park at Gate 4 (Administrative Offices). Television crews that park in the back of the ballpark enter through the loading dock. A Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or Chicago White Sox credential is necessary for admittance. Gate 4 and the clubhouses will be opened to the media 3 1/2 hours prior to game time.

Broadcast Booths: Take the elevator to Level 2, proceed to the Press Box, and take the stairs to the broadcast booths. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Reserved), Booth 2 (Home TV), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Home Radio), Booth 5 (Visiting Radio), Booth 6 (Reserved), Booth 7 (Reserved).

Clubhouses: Credentials must indicate clubhouse access. Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the White Sox clubhouse (third base side) is to the left and the visitors' clubhouse (first base side) is to the right. The White Sox clubhouse will be closed to the media 45 minutes prior to the game and between games of a doubleheader. Following the game, the White Sox clubhouse will be opened to the media no later than 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room, and players' lounge will be closed to the media at all times.

Credentials: Proper credentials must be displayed at all times. Credentials will be issued only to legitimate newsgathering agencies that have contacted the Public Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance. Media Will Call is located at Gate 4, Window 10, which opens two hours prior to game time.

Dark Rooms: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the dark rooms are to the right beyond the entrance to the Umpires' Clubhouse.

Elevators: Two elevators are located to the right after entrance at Gate 4. Proper credentials will be necessary for access to the elevators. Take either elevator to Level 2 for the Press Box, Level 3 for the Bards Room (dining room), or Level 5 for the Upper Photo Boxes (Sections 524 and 540).

Field: Credentials must indicate field access. The field and dugouts must be cleared following pre-game batting practice and infield drills. Postgame live shots can be done from the warning track areas immediately in front of the first and third base photo boxes. However, postgame interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without special permission, until 10 minutes after the last out.

Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in Lots C and G, as designated on the parking pass.

Photo Areas: Enter at Gate 4 and proceed to the service tunnel. As you reach the service tunnel, the third base photo box is to the left and the first base photo box is to the right. Upper photo boxes are also available near Sections 524 and 540. Still photographers are not allowed in the tunnel behind home plate or in the clubhouses, without special permission.

Postgame Interview Room: Approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game, manager Jerry Manuel and selected players (when possible) will be available in the postgame interview room. The interviews will be broadcast into the press box and a multbox will be available for TV/radio use.

Press Box: Take the elevator to Level 2. The Press Box contains 120 seats, a work room, telephones for credit card calls and a dining area. No food or drink may be taken from the Press Box.

Television Minicam Crews: WBBM (2), WMAQ (5), WLS (7), WGN (9), WFLD (32), ChicagoLand Television and FOX Sports Net will be allowed to park two vehicles each at the rear of the ballpark near the Players' Lot (corner of 35th Street and Wentworth Avenue). Crews parking in this area enter the stadium with their equipment via the loading dock. Access to the field is via the first and third base photo boxes off the service tunnel. Access to the photo boxes on the upper concourse is via the freight elevator in the left field corner of the stadium.

Pre-game interviews must be done on the field. No game action can be shown during a live shot. Use of lights in the stadium during the game is prohibited. Proper credentials will be necessary for access to the clubhouses. Following the game, interviews will not be allowed in or near the dugouts, without permission, until 10 minutes after the final out.

Roving through the stands and concourses is prohibited. Likewise, field level access during the game is limited to the first and third base photo boxes.
